Argonauta Training Services is very versatile in developing instructor - led courses with exercises, software and tools, homework, and exams.

ABOUT ARGONAUTA

Argonauta Training Services was formed in 2007 to leverage the significant knowledge and expertise of its affiliate, Argonauta Drilling Services, which provides a highly -skilled staff of specialized consultants to the upstream oil and gas industry.

With confidence derived from applied experience in engineering and project management, Argonauta's trainers have the means and proven ability to sustain its reputation as an industry leader in custom training. Its objective to connect top energy organizations with the expertise of reliable, experienced and accomplished instructors is what makes all the difference.

Argonauta Training became a wholly owned subsidiary of Competentia A/S in 2014.
